What if we're late for the meeting! Don't day dream like that!

I'm sorry.

That's hilarious! Are you gonna do it?

The frame is from the Korean "Hitauze".
The cockpit and Control OS, is
from Sakata Industries, Japan.

Its settings
should be set
at Standard,
which everyone
here has trained with when they were still at the Japanese
Defense Force.

We sprayed
the outer armor with an organic EL
substance, and it hides
itself by projecting
it's surroundings.

It's a type of digital camouflage
that can only be used
while it's stationary, but
it'll be useful

Those that can't...
We'll just die

This is the Custom

That the

all serial numbers
so it's an utterly
